Remember When...

Shauna Corbitt
We were in Mrs. O'Brien's English class and the construction workers ran inside the building yelling evacuate the building as fast as possible because a truck might blow up because of a gas leak outside. LOL

Liz Petillo
1,2,3 1,2,3 1,2 Ahhh! When the back of the bus (on a classic Latin field trip), bribed "close" friends to kiss, and took a picture of it.

Amanda Currier
We were sitting on the couch and the kid walked into the easel.

Bob Thompson
Hardi had to sit behind the easel in Mrs. Bendell's 1st grade class, and Augusto "got on the floor" during the basketball game.

Caitlin Miller
I tried to take a knife into six flags and didn't know it!

Eminence Kusu
I first came to Avon High and we had to go to church due to construction and for some reason people called me Texas because I moved here from there.

Felisha Xavier
Remember when Shauna locked herself out of her car? She went to A-1 to get a hanger to unlock the door so she can get her keys in her bag which was in her car. Then she had to run to school so she wouldn't be late.

Karl-Lydie Jean-Baptiste
Christlynn and I couldn't see the arrow in the vision test. THERE WAS NO ARROW!!!

Keri Houhoulis
Playing "fun" hang man in Physical Science with no sub...Latin Field Trip Kiss!...Broken Collarbone in Suicides...enough said.

Christlynn Chrispin
I left the classroom to bring down the attendance, and when I came back, Kelly was stomping all over my book bag. When I scream out "KELLY," she turned around and said, "I didn't do it."

Kasey Churchey
Remember when..we were in saturday detention and we were so hiding from the guy mand, goodtimes!

Crystal Appler
Sardou surprised me in the hallway and Gui called me blue for a week.

RJ Pomerleau
Remember when... we became professional uno players in Ms. Simons FST class.

Courtney Davis
Remember when... It took me 48 minutes to walk 8 feet at Crystal's house and her mom sang to us at 2 am.

Kevin Foster
We had a school and I dressed like Mr. Henderson

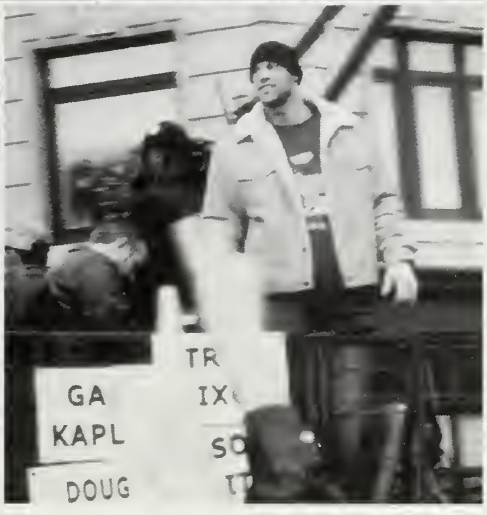
Teams without home field advantage

This was the year of no home field advantage for Avon sports. Even so, many teams made it to their tournaments and one coach, Mrs. McCarthy, was named Coach of the Year in Volleyball AND softball by The Enterprise newspaper. Everyone -- players and coaches alike -- contributed above and beyond their share of time, effort, and sheer will to win. Congratulations to all.



The Red Sox made history this year and some of the Yearbook staff were there to capture the moment at the parade!

Thank you...

to Mr. Moegelin for his many photos that enhance this yearbook...to Dr. Seely for his support...our class advisors, Mr. Ahern and Ms. Nilsen...our administration and school committee for their support.

The biggest THANK YOU goes to Eminence and Karl-Lydie, (and their sidekick, Christlynn) who faithfully appeared after school each day, to stay until late into the afternoon, so that this yearbook could be finished. Without their efforts, the class of 2005 would not have a yearbook. XXXOOO...Mrs. M.

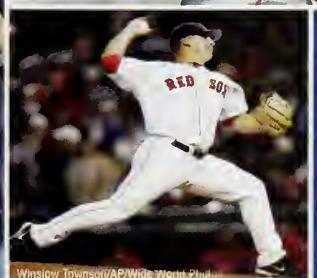
Relive the greatest sports year in New England history.

New England Champions!



The Boston Red Sox

The Boston Red Sox win their first World Series since 1918.

Red Sox 4, Cardinals 0

After 86 years, the Boston Red Sox are once again World Champions. To reach the World Series, they complete the greatest comeback in sports history by rebounding from a three games-to-none deficit to defeat the New York Yankees, 4-3. With clutch batting and masterful pitching, the Red Sox complete their journey with a 4-0 sweep of the St. Louis Cardinals, laying claim to the prize they have pursued for nearly nine decades...a World Series ring.

Three by three

The New England Patriots win their third Super Bowl in four years—each by a three-point margin—to attain NFL Dynasty status. Introduced as a team rather than individuals, the Patriots overcome a strong Philadelphia Eagles defense to win Super Bowl XXXIX, 24-21.

"To me this trophy belongs to these players. They met all comers this year, a very challenging year. We're thrilled to win. These players played great all year, their best in the big games and they deserve it, they really deserve it."

Head Coach,
New England Patriots

The Patriots tie the record of Vince Lombardi's Green Bay Packers of the 1960s when MVP Deion Branch ties a Super Bowl record with 11 receptions, and Rodney Harrison sparks a stifling defense, to lead the Patriots to their ninth consecutive postseason game. It's a fitting end to a season that also includes an unprecedented run of 21 consecutive victories (over two seasons) and an NFL-record 18 regular-season wins in a row.

History

Robert E. Klein/AP/Wide World Photos

Gillette Stadium, current home of the New England Patriots, is completed for the start of the 2002 season. The stadium (capacity 68,756) has many features that make it unique to the New England heritage, including a picturesque bridge and 12-story high lighthouse.

History of the New England Patriots

Professional football arrives in New England on November 16, 1959, when a group of local businessmen is awarded the eighth and final franchise in the new American Football League. One week later, the Patriots select Northwestern University running back Ron Burton as the franchise's first draft choice.

The Patriots' Hall of Fame includes:

Bruce Armstrong, Tackle, #78

Nick Buoniconti, Linebacker, #85

Gino Cappelletti, Wide Receiver, #20

Bob Dee, Defensive End, #89

Steve Grogan, Quarterback, #14

John Hannah, Guard, #73

Michael Haynes, Cornerback, #40

Jim Lee Hunt, Defensive Tackle, #79

Steve Nelson, Linebacker, #57

Vito Parilli, Quarterback, #5

Andre Tippett, Linebacker, #56

John Hannah, Patriots offensive guard from 1973-1985, is a member of the Patriots' Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Fenway Park has one of the last hand-operated scoreboards in the Major Leagues.

Ted Williams of the Red Sox tips his hat to the fans during a farewell Ted Williams Day at Fenway Park on April 30, 19[illegible].

- Behind the [illegible] scoreboard is a room where the walls are covered with signatures of players who have played left field through the years.
- No ball has ever been hit over the left field roof.
- In 1940, in an effort to help Ted Williams hit home runs, the Red Sox added the right field bullpens known as Williamsburg which reduces the distance to the fence by 23 feet.
- A seat in the right field section is painted red to mark the spot where the longest measurable home run ever hit over Fenway Park landed. Ted Williams hit the home run on June 9, 1946, and Fred Hutchinson of the Detroit Tigers is estimated at 502 feet and supposedly traveled through the [illegible] hat of the man sitting in the seat.
